The University of Florida is one of only 17 public land-grant universities that belongs to the Association of American Universities. With an enrollment of 50,000 students, UF provides high quality instruction to prepare the future leaders of the state and nation. The Department of Recreational Sports strives to provide an extensive array of leisure and recreational opportunities. Approximately 87% of UF students participate in our programs and services which include two recreation centers, three strength and conditioning facilities, an assessment center, nine multi-purpose field areas, an outdoor recreation complex, two lakeside parks and a competition-size pool. In the Fall of 2010, the Southwest Recreation Center expansion project opened, adding the Training Center, a 15,000 sq. ft. cardio room, a mind-body studio, indoor track and a new administrative wing.
