• Any player may hand the ball forward or backward at any time.
• A backward pass or fumble, which touches the ground between the goal lines, is dead at the spot where it touches the ground or crosses the sideline.
• During a down in which a legal forward pass crosses the offensive line of scrimmage, contact or action that interferes with an eligible receiver who is beyond the line of scrimmage is pass interference. It is also pass interference if an eligible receiver is deflagged prior to touching the ball. |

CO-REC RULES REVIEW:

- The game shall be played between two teams of eight players, four men and four women. Teams with seven players shall be four men and three women or four women and three men. Six players, three men and three women are required to start the game and avoid a forfeit.
- An offensive male runner cannot advance the ball across the line of scrimmage.
- Male to Male Completion - During the offensive team’s possession there may not be two consecutive legal forward pass completions from a male passer to a male receiver. This rule applies to the Point after Touchdown Try. If a male passer completes a legal forward pass to a male receiver, the next legal forward pass must involve a female passer or female receiver for positive yardage.
